DELICIOUSLY DELECTABLE

More than a century ago a woman named Ines Rosales handmade olive oil tortas and sold them at the train station in the Spanish city of Seville.

Made only using local ingredients – including extra virgin olive oil – it wasn't long until this Andalusian specialty became renowned throughout Spain.

Today, Ines Rosales Tortas are still made in small batches using the original recipe and are also hand-flattened and hand-wrapped.

Available in 180g packets in tempting flavours like Sweet Olive Oil or Seville Orange, Ines Rosales Tortas are the perfect accompaniment to any meal.
