BRING THE TASTE OF SPAIN TO THE KITCHEN

The Feliubadaló range has been a home in Barcelona's emblematic Boqueria Market since the start of the 20th century.

The range of traditional sauces stay true to their origins. A few drops or a quick squirt of the Salsa de Barcelona brings out flavours and adds a very tasty, special touch. The All i Oli is a creamy paste made from garlic and oil from a traditional recipe and is an ideal accompaniment for meat, fish, seafood, salad, vegetables and potatoes. The Salsa Brava is a traditional Spanish sauce originating from the capital Madrid. This sauce has a tangy, tomato flavour spiced with paprika. Finally, the Romesco is the most internationally recognised Catalan sauce made from tomatoes, oil, white wine vinegar, almonds, hazelnuts and garlic.
